

Abington- Thirty-one years ago, when the Abington High School marching band was comprised of 200 students, Anne Smith, the wife of Paul K. Smith, the Music Director at that time, began the Fall and Christmas Crafts Fair to supplement the band's budget. Today, this popular fundraiser is still chaired by Smith and sponsored by the Abington Music Parents Association, but it is a necessary portion of the school's music budget. The Fair is eagerly anticipated by hundreds of area residents each year and has become one of the "must do" activities to begin the fall season.

This year's Fair will be held on Sunday, September 19, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Abington High School Gym. Smith reports that she is very excited about the variety of crafters who have already signed up to participate in this year's Fall and Christmas Crafts Fair. She advises any other crafters who would also like to participate to contact her at 781-878-1189, as soon as possible however, since there are only a few of the 80 available spaces left.
